These Lug Pouches are Clear

August 22, 2018 - by Melody Wren

colorful transparent pouches are sturdy, durable and organize smaller travel items like no other pouch I have found. Travelers can use them for corralling just about anything including first aid items, pencils and pens, hair accessories. I use a medium size and a large size for jewellery when I travel. It keeps it all in one spot – earrings and rings in the medium and the larger holds bracelets, necklaces and watches. I know other travelers who swear by using zip lock bags for organizing cosmetics, but these pouches are long lasting and never leak. With the durable plastic, it would be difficult to damage the exterior. The transparent window all the way around makes it easy to find what you are looking for. The interior is wipe-able and the material is specially treated with water-repellant finish.

The edge has the signature LUG quilted accents so if you happen to be storing something others will see, such as your art pencils, style is a factor.
